

Estfeld Celebrates World Book Day 2019

Dear Parents, Carers and Pupils,

We try to do something different each year to celebrate the wonderful world of children's books. In recent years we have had a Big Bedtime Story, Reading Breakfast, Extreme Reading Challenge and Spooky Storytime.

This year, we are inviting our pupils to come to school dressed as their favourite book character!

On World Book Day, Thursday 7th March:

- Please come to school dressed as your favourite book character and bring the book with you! (Make sure your book has your name in it!)
- We will be reading with partners from other classes in our Big Read event. (KS1 will read their school reading book to a partner from KS2 and then choose a story for their partner to read to them!)
- We will be having a visit from a local author Jackie Irwin (whose children came to Estfeld).
- All pupils will receive their £1 World Book Day voucher.

World Book Day is always a day to remember so join in and enjoy!

Mrs Martin

Please be aware that World Book Day was originally established to raise awareness of children in many parts of the world who do not have the opportunity to learn to read or access to books of their own. The World Book Day website has information about ways to help.

World Book Day was NOT established as a money making enterprise for supermarkets to sell costumes. There are many ideas for simple book character costumes online. We have no wish to cause you extra expense.
